

Image Category Definitions

MuseumSpecimens

Images created to represent an accessioned specimen.

FieldWork

Any images created in the field. Can be related to work regarding conservation, restoration, demographic monitoring, floristics, etc.

HerbariumWork

Images created in the herbarium that portray scientific activities.

LabWork

Images created in the laboratory that portray scientific activities. This includes ecological work, genetic work, tissue culture, germination trials, etc.

HorticulturalWork

Images that portray any Research and Conservation related work that involves horticulture. This includes the growing out of plants that are part of a scientific study.

Office

Images of staff, volunteers, or otherwise within or outside the workplace, not portraying scientific activities.

Outreach

Images created during any outreach activity

ProfessionalPhotography

Images created by a professional photographer either contracted or volunteering for the Denver Botanic Gardens.

Publications

Images that are to be used or have been used in any published work.

Reference

Images that are to be used or have been used within internal documents such as training materials, protocols, or reference materials.

Documentation

Images created to document the current state of a situation, the damage caused by a disaster or other event, or other miscellaneous occurrences that may require documentation.

ImagesInProcess

Images that have been transferred from a camera, but are awaiting proper processing such as file renaming or the addition of metadata.